CYO Coaches Needed!

Saint John Paul II Parish, in partnership with Our Lady of Port Richmond School, as well as Mother of Divine Grace Interparochial and Saint George Independent Schools, is proud to announce a newly formed youth group! Saint John Paul II Parish Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) is a way for our young people to deepen friendships, learn teamwork, develop skills, and discover the joy of being part of a Christ-centered group of peers.

In addition to spiritual, social, cultural, and service opportunities, the parish CYO enables young people to use their God-given talents to play sports in a safe, fun, and educational environment.

Saint John Paul II Parish CYO is open to all students at MDG, OLPR, St. George, the Parish Prep Program, and Saint John Paul II Parish registered parishioners in Grades 5-8. Any student who registers to play a sport with our CYO will have the opportunity to participate in the sport.

CYO sports available through the Archdiocese of Philadelphia are:

- Volleyball
- Cross country
- Track and field
- Soccer
- Basketball,
- Baseball
- Softball

But we can only provide teams to our kids if we have responsible adults to coach them! We need volunteer coaches and assistant coaches who can share their talents and knowledge of the sports. If you (or anyone you know) are interested in coaching a team, please contact Sarah at the rectory as soon as possible. (215-739-3500)

To be a coach or assistant coach, volunteers must:

- Be 21 years of age or older
 - Attend a Coaches Orientation
 - Complete the required background checks.
- For more information on clearances or to register for training, see www.childyouthprotection.org.

More information about registration and coaching opportunities for Fall sports will appear in the Church bulletin, on social media, and through each school's communication channels.

We look forward to an exciting year of CYO sports and activities for the children of Saint John Paul II Parish.
