The Mystery of the Hidden Christ

How different my days may be if I could learn to live and embrace the mystery of Christ living in ME? Will I allow this hidden Christ to become visible through me?

Here are some real-life testimonies of those who allowed Christ to become visible:

One Associate recounted a situation when a small boy was found with a terminal illness. The family and friends turned to pray to Jesus begging for healing. They knew the doctors can do their part, but only God could decide to take him to Himself or not. However, God did answer and the child improved greatly. The parents kept visibly thanking the God who was hidden in all those who turned to Him.

Another Associate's brother was disabled and at a certain time needed to be put into a home. The list for possible residence was very long and the possibility for him to be accepted was very low. God was contacted and he sent certain individuals to help facilitate this person's placement into a home, where he was happy.

God allowed another Associate in her grief to feel at peace about her husband after his death. God's Presence in her made this possible.

Knowing that in God's Presence, one can also turn to saints and religious people for prayer, an Associate prayed for her sick infant and brought her to Carmel so that the Sisters would pray for her. God answered with the child's healing.

Through her teaching career, another Associate with God's help and her prayers, was able to help 5 couples marry and stay committed until now. She believes God called her to assist these couples.

Prayer, the Sacrament of Penance and Eucharist, and the consciousness of God's Presence within each of us through His Holy Spirit, keeps one open to contact our Almighty and Loving God.

God has given us the tools! Am I using them to allow the Hidden Christ become visible through me, especially in my own family? ? ?
